

Stevenage Arts Guild Award

Application Form for 2010

Individual Award for Personal Development

An award to support you as you develop your standard of performance to a level that will give access to recognised professional qualifications. You should show excellence in your artistic field and make a specific proposal for how the award will be used. For example the award might be used for private music or dance lessons, to contribute towards the cost of a new instrument, or help provision of art materials on entry to a new course of study. Awards will not normally be made to support course fees or travelling expenses.
